

ABOUT THIS COFFEE

The birthplace of coffee, Jimma offers varieties with internationally recognized qualities. This region boasts a rich natural environment and incredible biodiversity. Coffee is traditionally grown here in forest and semi-forest, in association with species of shade trees that ensure slow ripening of the cherries and high-quality coffee.

Species	Arabica
Varieties	Heirloom
Process	Natural
Drying	Drying beds
Altitude	1500-2300
Harvest	November - December
Type of harvest	Manual

