ABOUT THIS COFFEE

Masha Quality Holdings is a family business founded in 2016 by Sylvia Achebet and her husband, Dr Alfred Boyo, in the Kween district of the Sebei ethnic region on the western slopes of Mount Elgon in eastern Uganda. Sylvia and Alfred work in the public health sector, but both grew up in coffee farming families. They started planting their own coffee trees in 2001 and have since expanded their plantation to 20 acres (8 hectares).

This batch of coffee comes from the cherries of 11 farmers in the Sipi Falls region who have been working with Sylvia and Alfred for several years.

After being selectively picked when perfectly ripe, the cherries are transported to the washing and drying station located in the family home in Kamowo village, off the main road in the Kween district.

The cherries are cleaned and sorted to remove defects and selected to make a batch of perfectly ripe red cherries.
