

CHANIA — MIXED VAR

Kenya • Province Centrale • Thika

ABOUT THIS COFFEE

The estate is named after the Chania River, which in Kikuyu legend tells the story of two sisters, Cha and Nia, who were separated by the river to learn peace.

Chania Estate grows a diverse portfolio of varieties—French Mission (an heirloom Bourbon brought by French missionaries in 1892), SL28 and SL34 (Kenya's famous "SL" varieties developed by Scott Agricultural Laboratories), Batian (disease-resistant), Ruiru 11 (high-yield, resilient), and K7. This coffee is a blend of french mission, SL 34, ruiru 11, batian and K7. This Ab grade (screen size 16/17) is dense and packed with flavor.

The washed process involves careful hand-picking, pulping, fermentation in water tanks, thorough rinsing, and sun-drying on raised beds. Belco has been buying directly from Boyce since 2017.

Chania Estate is named after the Chania River, which runs along its border. The estate's story is intertwined with the Kikuyu legend of two sisters, Cha and Nia, who were separated by the river to learn peace.
