

ABOUT THIS COFFEE

They guarantee fair prices to farmers and quality and traceability to customers. Highly committed to a fairer local coffee industry, they reinvest 20% of their profits in farming communities.

Through Ikawa House, Laetitia and Uzziel dream of building a sustainable coffee community in Rwanda, offering a better future to young Rwandans through their education centre, and promoting Rwandan speciality coffee.

This washed red bourbon is a nice example of their work!

Species	Arabica
Varieties	Mibirizi, Bourbon Mayaguez 139
Process	Washed
Drying	Drying beds
Altitude	2050 m
Harvest	May - September
Type of harvest	Manual

